Proxies must be received no later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time fixed for the Meeting. If your Ordinary Shares are held in “street name” meaning you are a beneficial owner with your shares held through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you will receive instructions from your bank, brokerage firm or nominee, who is the holder of record of your shares. You must follow the instructions of the holder of record in order for your shares to be voted.

OUTSTANDING VOTING SECURITIES AND QUORUM

On May 27, 2025, we had 17,063,630 outstanding Ordinary Shares, each of which is entitled to one vote upon each of the matters to be presented at the Meeting. Two or more shareholders holding Ordinary Shares conferring in the aggregate at least 25% of the voting power, present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, will constitute a quorum at the Meeting. If within an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the Meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such day and at such time and place as the Chairman may determine with the consent of the holders of a majority of the voting power represented at the Meeting in person by proxy and voting on the question of adjournment. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. At such adjourned meeting, any shareholder present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum.

COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

For information relating to the compensation of our five most highly compensated office holders with respect to the year ended December 31, 2024, please see “Item 6. Directors, Senior Management and Employees – B. Compensation” in our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, which was filed on March 21, 2025 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”).

ITEM 1 — RE-ELECTION OF A CLASS II DIRECTOR

Our Board currently consists of seven directors. Our Articles of Association provide for a classified Board consisting of three classes of directors. Currently, Class I consists of two directors, namely Mr. Amitay Weiss and Mr. Natan Israeli, Class II consists of three directors, namely Dr. Roy Borochoy, Ms. Naama Falach Avrahamy and Ms. Tali Dinar, and Class III consists of two directors, namely Mr. Moshe Revach and Mr. Yigal Shtief. The term of all Class II directors expires on the date of the Meeting. We are seeking to re-elect one Class II director, namely Ms. Tali Dinar.

Our Articles of Association provide that at the annual meeting of shareholders, directors will be elected to succeed those directors whose terms expire. Such elected directors shall be elected for a term of office to expire at the third succeeding annual meeting of shareholders after their election. Accordingly, the Class II director, if elected, shall be elected by our shareholders to serve until the 2028 annual meeting of shareholders, or until his respective successor shall have been elected and qualified. Each class is elected to serve a staggered three-year term.

At the Meeting, you will be asked to approve the re-election of Ms. Dinar to continue to serve as a Class II member of our Board.

Ms. Dinar has served as our director since February 2022. She also serves as Chief Financial Officer of Xylo Technologies Ltd. (Nasdaq: XYLO) since June 2021. Ms. Dinar served as Chief Financial Officer of Novomic Ltd., a private company, between January 2019 and January 2023. Additionally, Ms. Dinar has served as a director of Micronet Ltd. (TLV: MCRNT) between July 2016 and February 2023 and as a director in Canzon Israel Ltd. (TLV: CNZN) between August 2020 and March 2022. Ms. Dinar also currently serves as a member of the board of directors of Jeffs’ Brands, beginning September 30, 2021, a director in Charging Robotics Inc. since April 4, 2023. Prior to these positions, Ms. Dinar served as CFO of Techcare Corp. (OTC: TECR) from January 2019 to April 2020. She previously served in various positions at MICT Inc. (Nasdaq: MICT) from 2009 to 2019, including as a director and CFO. Ms. Dinar holds a B.A. in accounting and business administration from the College of Management and is also a CPA. We selected Ms. Dinar to serve as a director due to her long track record of leading public and private companies.

Required Approval

The affirmative vote of a majority of the Ordinary Shares present, in person or by proxy, and voting on the matter is required for the approval of the ratification of the election of the director set forth above.

Proposed Resolutions

It is proposed that the following resolution be adopted at the Meeting:

“RESOLVED, to re-elect Ms. Tali Dinar to serve as a Class II director of the Company until the 2028 annual meeting of shareholders, or until she ceases to serve in her office in accordance with the provisions of the Company’s Articles of Association or any law, whichever is the earlier.

The Board recommends a vote “FOR” approval of the proposed resolution.

ITEM 2 — EXTENSION OF AN APPROVAL OF A REVERSE SPLIT OF THE COMPANY'S ISSUED AND OUTSTANDING ORDINARY SHARES

Background

As first reported in our report furnished on Form 6-K to the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on April 11, 2025, we received a notification letter from Nasdaq on April 10, 2025 (the “Nasdaq Notice”), notifying the Company that it is not in compliance with the minimum bid price requirement for continued listing set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2), which requires listed securities to maintain a minimum bid price of $1.00 per share (the “Minimum Bid Price Requirement”).

Pursuant to Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has been provided with an initial 180-calendar day period, ending on October 7, 2025 (the “Initial Compliance Period”), to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement. If at any time during the Initial Compliance Period, the closing bid price per share of the Company’s Ordinary Shares is at least $1.00 for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, it is expected that Nasdaq will provide the Company a written confirmation of compliance and the matter will be closed.

If the Company does not regain compliance within the Initial Compliance Period, it may be eligible for an additional 180-calendar day compliance period, provided that it meets certain listing requirements of the Nasdaq Capital Market (except the Minimum Bid Price Requirement) and notifies Nasdaq of its intent to cure this deficiency during this second compliance period. If the Company has not regained compliance within the period(s) granted by Nasdaq, including any extensions, the Company’s Ordinary Shares will be subject to delisting, pending an appeal to the Nasdaq Hearing Panel.

On February 8, 2024, we received a similar notification letter from Nasdaq, notifying the Company that it was not in compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement, along with all the implications arising from such non-compliance. In order to provide the Company with greater flexibility and to help stabilize its capital structure, the Board resolved in 2024 to pursue a reverse stock split. At the July 24, 2024, Special General Meeting of the Company’s shareholders, it was resolved to authorize the Board to effect a reverse split of the Company’s issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares at a ratio of between 1:5 and 1:20 during a period of 18 months from the date of such meeting. On December 13, 2024, we received a notification letter from Nasdaq, notifying us that the Company had regained compliance with Listing Rule 5550(a)(2) after our Ordinary Shares maintained a minimum closing bid price of $1.00 or more for 10 consecutive trading days, and, accordingly, the matter was closed. The Company did not effect a reverse split in order to regain compliance with Listing Rule 5550(a)(2).

In line with the above, the Board hereby recommends to extend the authority granted by shareholders’ resolution that was adopted on July 24, 2024 for a period of 18 months from the date of the Meeting.

Purpose and Effect of the Reverse Split

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, we are currently not in compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2), and there can be no assurance that the closing bid price for our Ordinary Shares will be compliant within the Initial Compliance Period. Nasdaq has discretion whether to grant the additional 180-day compliance period and in the Company’s case, there is uncertainty as to whether Nasdaq will afford us such an additional compliance period. Due to the decrease in the share price of the Company’s Ordinary Shares, we believe that a reverse share split of our Ordinary Shares may be advisable in order to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement either prior to the end of the Initial Compliance Period (in the event that Nasdaq does not afford us such additional compliance period) or prior to the end of the additional 180-day compliance period (in the event that Nasdaq does afford us such additional compliance period). We believe that the continued listing of our Ordinary Shares on the Nasdaq Capital Market will enable us to have better access to the public capital markets while providing for greater liquidity for our shareholders. In addition, we believe that the Reverse Split (as defined below) is advisable in order to make our Ordinary Shares more attractive to a broader range of investors, including professional investors, institutional investors and the general investing public. Regaining compliance with Nasdaq Rules will enable us to maintain our listing for trade on the Nasdaq Capital Market.

Our Board intends to effect such Reverse Split only if it believes that a decrease in the number of Ordinary Shares outstanding is likely to improve the trading price of our Ordinary Shares and is necessary to continue our listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market.

The principal effects of the Reverse Split would be that:

- the per share exercise price of any outstanding options would be increased proportionately and the number of Ordinary Shares issuable upon the exercise of such options would be reduced proportionately;
- the number of Ordinary Shares authorized for future issuance under our equity plans would be proportionately reduced and other similar adjustments will be made under the equity plans to reflect the Reverse Split;
- the exercise, exchange or conversion price of all other outstanding securities, such as warrants, that are exercisable or exchangeable for or convertible into Ordinary Shares would be proportionately adjusted to maintain the intrinsic value of such securities and the number of Ordinary Shares issuable upon such exercise, exchange or conversion would be proportionately adjusted;
- the par value of our Ordinary Shares will be adjusted in proportion to the ratio of the Reverse Split. For instance, if our Board effects a reverse split at a ratio of 1-for-5, the par value of our Ordinary Shares will change from NIS 0.02 each to NIS 0.10 par value each, and if our Board effects a reverse split at a ratio of 1-for-20, the par value of our Ordinary Shares will change from NIS 0.02 each to NIS 0.40 par value each;
- the Reverse Split would likely increase the number of shareholders who own odd lots (less than 100 shares). Odd lot shares may be more difficult to sell, and brokerage commissions and other costs of transactions in odd lots are generally higher than the costs of transactions in “round lots” of even multiples of 100 shares; and
- after the effective time of the Reverse Split, the Ordinary Shares would have a new CUSIP number, which is a number used to identify our Ordinary Shares.

We are therefore seeking approval of the shareholders to effect a reverse split of the Company’s issued and outstanding ordinary shares at a ratio of between 1:5 and 1:20, such that, depending on the ratio, every five ordinary shares and up to twenty ordinary shares shall be converted into one ordinary share, with the par value adjusted proportionally (the “Reverse Split”). If this Item 1 is approved by our shareholders, the Board will have the authority, in its own discretion, within 18 months of the date of the Meeting, to determine if to implement the Reverse Split, and the exact ratio and the effective date of the Reverse Split.

No fractional shares will be issued as a result of the Reverse Split. In accordance with our Articles of Association, our Board determined that all fractional shares will be rounded to the nearest whole ordinary share, such that only shareholders holding fractional consolidated shares of more than one-half of one whole share shall be entitled to receive one consolidated share.

Upon the implementation of the Reverse Split, we intend to treat shares held by shareholders through a bank, broker, custodian or other nominee in the same manner as registered shareholders whose shares are registered in their names. Banks, brokers, custodians or other nominees will be instructed to effect the Reverse Split for their beneficial holders holding our ordinary shares in street name. However, these banks, brokers, custodians or other nominees may have different procedures than registered shareholders for processing the Reverse Split. Shareholders who hold our ordinary shares with a bank, broker, custodian or other nominee and who have any questions in this regard are encouraged to contact their banks, brokers, custodians or other nominees.

Certain Risks Associated with the Reverse Split

There are numerous factors and contingencies that could affect the price of our Ordinary Shares following the proposed Reverse Split, including the status of the market for our Ordinary Shares at the time, our reported results of operations in future periods, and general economic, market and industry conditions. Accordingly, the market price of our Ordinary Shares may not be sustainable as the direct arithmetic result of the Reverse Split. If the market price of our Ordinary Shares declines after the Reverse Split, our total market capitalization (the aggregate value of all of our outstanding ordinary shares at the then existing market price) after the Reverse Split will be lower than before the Reverse Split.

The Reverse Split may result in some shareholders owning “odd lots” of less than 100 Ordinary Shares on a post-split basis. Odd lots may be more difficult to sell, or require greater transaction costs per share to sell, than shares in “round lots” of even multiples of 100 shares.

Material Israeli Tax Consequences

The Reverse Split should not be a taxable event for shareholders under Israeli tax laws. Shareholders should consult with their own tax advisors regarding the tax effect, if any, of the Reverse Split on them.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Split to U.S. Holders (as defined below) of our Ordinary Shares. This summary does not purport to be a complete discussion of all of the possible U.S. federal income tax consequences. Further, it does not address the impact of the Medicare surtax on certain net investment income or the alternative minimum tax, U.S. federal estate or gift tax laws, any state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences or any tax treaties. Also, it does not address the tax consequences to holders that are subject to special tax rules, such as (i) persons who are not U.S. Holders; (ii) banks, insurance companies, or other financial institutions; (iii) regulated investment companies; (iv) tax-qualified retirement plans; (v) dealers in securities and foreign currencies; (vi) persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; (vii) traders in securities that use the mark-to-market method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes; (viii) persons deemed to sell our Ordinary Shares under the constructive sale provisions of the Code; (ix) persons that acquired our Ordinary Shares through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan; (x) persons that hold our Ordinary Shares as part of a straddle, appreciated financial position, synthetic security, hedge, conversion transaction or other integrated investment or risk reduction transaction; (xi) persons that own, directly, indirectly or constructively, at any time, Ordinary Shares representing 5% or more of our voting power or value; (xii) certain former citizens or long-term residents of the United States; and (xiii) tax-exempt entities or governmental organizations.

As used herein, the term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of our Ordinary Shares that is (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) that is created or organized (or treated as created or organized) in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) an estate whose income is includible in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source, or (iv) a trust if (x) a U.S. court can exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more U.S. persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (y) it has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

The discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial authority as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary also assumes that the Ordinary Shares prior to the Reverse Split (the “Old Shares”) were, and the Ordinary Shares after the Reverse Split (the “New Shares”) will be, held as a “capital asset,” as defined within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (i.e., generally, property held for investment). The tax treatment of a U.S. Holder may vary depending upon the particular facts and circumstances of such U.S. Holder. Each shareholder is urged to consult with such shareholder's own tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences of the Reverse Split

If a partnership (or other entity or arrangement classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is the beneficial owner of our Ordinary Shares, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships that hold our Ordinary Shares, and partners in such partnerships, should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Split.

We have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) or an opinion from counsel, with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Split. Our view regarding the tax consequences of the Reverse Split is not binding on the IRS or the courts. Moreover, there can be no assurance that the IRS or a court will agree with such statements and conclusions.

The Reverse Split is intended to constitute a “recapitalization” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Therefore, subject to the discussion regarding passive foreign investment company (“PFIC”), status below, no gain or loss should be recognized by a U.S. Holder upon such U.S. Holder's exchange (or deemed exchange) of Old Shares for New Shares pursuant to the Reverse Split. The aggregate tax basis of the New Shares received (or deemed received) in the Reverse Split should be the same as the U.S. Holder's aggregate tax basis in the Old Shares exchanged (or deemed exchanged) therefor. The U.S. Holder's holding period for the New Shares should include the period during which the U.S. Holder held the Old Shares surrendered (or deemed surrendered) in the Reverse Split. U.S. holders that hold Ordinary Shares acquired on different dates and at different prices should consult their tax advisors regarding identifying the bases and holding periods of the particular Ordinary Shares they hold after the Reverse Split.

Pursuant to Section 1291(f) of the Code, to the extent provided in U.S. Treasury regulations, if a U.S. person transfers stock in a PFIC in a transaction that does not result in full recognition of gain, then any unrecognized gain is required to be recognized notwithstanding any non-recognition provision in the Code. The U.S. Treasury has issued proposed regulations under Section 1291(f) of the Code, but they have not been finalized. The IRS could take the position that Section 1291(f) of the Code is effective even in the absence of finalized regulations, or the regulations could be finalized with retroactive effect. Accordingly, no assurances can be provided as to the potential applicability of Section 1291(f) of the Code to the Reverse Split.

Based on the projected composition of our income and valuation of our assets, we may have been a PFIC during 2023, and although we have not determined whether we will be a PFIC in 2024, or in any subsequent year, our operating results for any such years may cause us to be a PFIC. However, the Company's actual PFIC status for the current taxable year or any subsequent taxable year is uncertain and will not be determinable until after the end of such taxable year. Accordingly, there can be no assurance with respect to the Company's status as a PFIC for the taxable year ending December 31, 2024, or any subsequent taxable year. If the Company is treated as a PFIC with respect to a U.S. Holder and Section 1291(f) applies to the U.S. Holder's exchange (or deemed exchange) of Old Shares for New Shares pursuant to the Reverse Split, the U.S. Holder may be required to recognize any gain realized on such transfer, in which case such gain generally would be subject to the “excess distribution” rules under Section 1291 of the Code. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Reverse Split if the Company were treated as a PFIC.

Each shareholder should consult with his, her or its own tax advisor with respect to all of the potential tax consequences to such shareholder of the Reverse Split, including the applicability and effect of any state, local, and non-U.S. tax laws, as well as U.S. federal tax laws and any applicable tax treaties.

THE U.S. CONSEQUENCES OF THE REVERSE SPLIT MAY DEPEND UPON THE PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES OF EACH SHAREHOLDER. ACCORDINGLY, EACH SHAREHOLDER IS ADVISED TO CONSULT THE SHAREHOLDER’S TAX ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO ALL OF THE POTENTIAL TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THE SHAREHOLDER OF THE REVERSE SPLIT.

Required Approval

The affirmative vote of a majority of the Ordinary Shares present, in person or by proxy, and voting on the matter is required for the approval of the proposed resolution.

Proposed Resolution

It is proposed that the following resolution be adopted at the Meeting:

RESOLVED, to approve a reverse share split of the Company’s issued and outstanding ordinary shares NIS 0.02 par value each, in the range of a ratio between 1:5 and 1:20, such that, depending on the ratio, every five ordinary shares and up to twenty ordinary shares shall be converted into one ordinary share with such par value to be adjusted proportionally, to be effected at the discretion of, and at such ratio and on such date to be determined by the Board, but not later than 18 months after the date of the Meeting, and to approve conforming amendments to the Company’s Articles of Association to reflect such reverse share split.

The Board recommends a vote “FOR” approval of the proposed resolution.

ITEM 3 — APPROVAL OF THE TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT OF THE COMPANY’S CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

At the Meeting, you will be asked to approve the compensation terms of Mr. Ariel Alon, our new Chief Executive Officer. On May 27, 2025, we announced the appointment of Mr. Alon as our new Chief Executive Officer, commencing as of July 26, 2025, or before, if possible. In connection with Mr. Alon’s appointment, we entered into an employment agreement setting forth the terms of employment of Mr. Alon as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The terms of the compensation offered to Mr. Alon under the employment agreement are subject to shareholders’ approval at the Meeting.

Pursuant to the Israeli Companies Law, 5759-1999 (the “Companies Law”), in general, the terms of compensation of a chief executive officer of a public company, such as ParaZero, need to be consistent with a company's compensation policy and be approved by the company's compensation committee, the board of directors and shareholders, in that order. However, the Companies Law also states that, under certain circumstances, a company's compensation committee and the board of directors may approve the terms of compensation of a chief executive officer even if such were not approved by the shareholders of the company after a vote was held on the matter at a general meeting of shareholders. Such approval needs to be based on detailed reasoning and after re-examining the proposed terms of compensation and evaluating, among other things, the opposition of the shareholders of the company to the proposed terms of compensation.

Our Board determined that the terms of Mr. Alon's compensation as our Chief Executive Officer are within the limitations set forth in our Compensation Policy for Executive Officers (as amended, the "Compensation Policy"), and approved his terms of compensation in such capacity, subject to shareholders' approval.

In approving the terms of compensation of Mr. Alon, our Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") and Board considered various factors, including, among other things, the educational and professional experience required from our Chief Executive Officer, his responsibilities and duties, the expected required contribution to our future growth, other elements of compensation, including equity-based compensation payable (or proposed to be payable) to our Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Alon has extensive experience in the industry, including over 20 years in senior executive positions, with a strong and proven track record in the defense sector. His broad experience, proven leadership skills, and deep familiarity with the Company's field of operation are expected to make a significant contribution to the Company's ongoing development and long-term success.

Below is a summary of the proposed terms of compensation for our Chief Executive Officer (the "Compensation Package"):

Base Salary:

Mr. Alon will be entitled to a base salary of NIS45,000 (equivalent to approximately $12,800) per month.

Equity Compensation

Mr. Alon will be entitled to 100,000 RSUs, which shall vest quarterly over three (3) years (the "RSU Grant"). The RSU Grant shall be subject to the ParaZero Ltd. 2022 Global Share Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), as amended and in effect from time to time.

Mr. Alon will be granted with 60,524 options, which shall vest over four years, with 50% vesting after two years and the remainder shall vest quarterly on a linear basis with an exercise price of $1.275. The options award shall be subject to the Plan, and the terms of the Grant Letter covering the grant.

Bonus Entitlement:

Mr. Alon may be eligible to receive an annual bonus at the Company's sole discretion and subject to meeting the criteria to be set by the board of directors of the Company at the beginning of each calendar year, for the purpose of the payment hereof (the "Bonus"). The payment of the Bonus will be made during the first quarter, with respect to the performance during the previous calendar year, in an amount of up to four months' Salary (which shall be pro-rated for the year 2025).

Benefits:

Mr. Alon will be entitled to customary social and other benefits, such as vacation days, sick leave, company car, cellular phone expenses, in addition to other benefits consistent with our Compensation Policy, our policies and procedures, and customary market practices.

Termination:

Each party may terminate Mr. Alon's employment upon providing 90 days' advance notice. ParaZero may terminate his employment "for cause" immediately, and without giving prior notice.

Required Approval

The affirmative vote of a majority of the Ordinary Shares present, in person or by proxy, and voting on the matter is required for the approval of the Compensation Package, provided that either (i) at least a majority of the Ordinary Shares voted on the matter by non-controlling shareholders or by shareholders who do not have a personal interest in the resolution, are voted in favor of the matter or (ii) the total number of Ordinary Shares of non-controlling shareholders or of shareholders who do not have a personal interest in the resolution voted against the matter does not exceed two percent of the outstanding voting power in our Company.

The Companies Law requires that each shareholder voting on this proposal indicate whether or not such person is a controlling shareholder or has a personal interest in such resolution. Under the Companies Law, a "Controlling Shareholder" for this purpose is any shareholder who has the ability to direct ParaZero's actions (other than by means of being a director or office holder of the Company), including any shareholder holding 25% or more of the voting rights if no other shareholder owns more than 50% of the voting rights in ParaZero. A shareholder is presumed to be a Controlling Shareholder if it holds or controls, by itself or together with others, one half or more of any one of the "means of control" of a company. "Means of control" is defined as any one of the following: (i) the right to vote at a general meeting of a company, or (ii) the right to appoint directors of a company or its chief executive officer.

To the knowledge of ParaZero there is no shareholder who is a Controlling Shareholder.

A "Personal Interest" of a shareholder (i) includes a personal interest of any member of the shareholder's family (or spouses thereof) or a personal interest of a company with respect to which the shareholder (or such family member) serves as a director or chief executive officer, owns at least 5% of our Ordinary Shares or has the right to appoint a director or chief executive officer, and (ii) excludes an interest arising solely from the ownership of our Ordinary Shares.

To avoid confusion, every shareholder voting by means of the enclosed proxy card or voting instruction form, or via telephone or internet voting, will be deemed to confirm that such shareholder is a non-Controlling Shareholder and is not a shareholder who has a Personal Interest in the resolution. If you are a Controlling Shareholder or a shareholder who has a Personal Interest in the resolution, please notify Mr. Regev Livne, our Chief Financial Officer, at 1 Hatachana St., Kfar Saba, Israel; telephone: +972-3-688-5252, or by email office@parazero.com. If your shares are held in "street name" by your broker, bank or other nominee and you are a Controlling Shareholder or a shareholder who has a Personal Interest in the resolution, you should notify the Company as outlined above, and, in addition, you should advise your broker, bank or other nominee of that status, and they in turn should notify the Company as described in the preceding sentence.
